

TUESDAY FARMERS MARKET FOLLOWS ALL LOCAL AND STATE REGULATIONS REGARDING CORONA VIRUS. AS WE ALL KNOW BY NOW, THIS IS AN EVER CHANGING SITUATION. PLEASE TRY TO INFORM YOURSELF WITH ANY AND ALL NEW MANDATES. AS OF MARCH 16, 2021 THE GOVERNOR HAS CLEARED ALL MASK MANDATES. THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT THERE WILL NOT BE MANDATES IN THE FUTURE. FAILURE TO ABIDE BY STATE MANDATES WILL RESULT IN EXPULSION FROM THE MARKET. THESE ARE NOT OUR RULES, BUT RULES MADE BY THE STATE OF WYOMING.

All vendors selling foods, nursery plants, and other regulated items must obtain the appropriate licenses from the Wyoming Department of Agriculture and the City of Cheyenne. TFM requires that a copy of all licenses be obtained after board vendor approval. The licenses need to be submitted to market manager before setting up vendor's booth for the first time. Followers of the Food Freedom Act need only a permit from the city of Cheyenne and correct labeling. Please inform yourself of this law. Here is the website to the FOOD FREEDOM ACT www.wyoleg.gov/Legislation/2020/HB0084

An application fee of $40 is required for all applications. Application fee is non refundable. Vendors may not attend the market until notification is given by the market that the application is accepted. New vendors will be notified if the application is approved, put on waiting list, or denied. Old vendors will be approved with the 2021 application being submitted to the vendor chairman. All vendors must keep track of food and non-food sales and pay the required Wyoming State Sales Taxes on taxable items. It is the vendor's responsibility to remit taxes. Vendors will pay a market fee of 7% of honest gross sales each time they attend market, payment to be made before leaving market. Any violation of this payment will result in removal from the market.

We live in Wyoming, the weather changes all the time. We ask that every tent or umbrella is weighted with 40 lbs on each leg. Wind is seemingly a constant in Cheyenne so please be aware of this and take caution on windy days.

I allow Tuesday Farmers' Market to use my business information to help promote and advertise the market at no additional cost to me. Information which may be used: Farm/Business Name and my name listed above, Products sold, Farm/Business website, e-mail address, and phone. Food sold at the market must be grown or produced by the seller or a member of the vendor's organization. The Board may grant a special exemption, in writing, to re-sell foods that have been purchased directly from another local grower or producer (receipts may be required). All non-food items sold at market must be produced by the seller. No re-sell craft items will be permitted for sale at market. The Market Manager may demand to see proof of origin for any questionable products. The Tuesday Farmers' Market has the right to refuse the marketing of any produce or products, and the right to reject any vendor.
